Thanks for support:

The church board would like to thank those who attended our special church meeting last Sunday afternoon. We appreciate your words of support and your offers to work at the parsonage and at the church. The work has already begun and more is scheduled for this week. The spirit dwelling in the people of this church is a constant reminder to us that God is leading us to where he wants us to be. He is guiding us as he prepares us to recognize and get ready for the pastor he has chosen for us. Please, keep praying.....
